General Comments

The inspector is onsite to conduct the renewal inspection and observes the following throughout the day: children engaged in outdoor play during the morning, a lunch activity where children prepared their own mini pizzas as outlined on the posted menu, nap time for one group, while another group participated in themed table activities that allowed for free choice play. Educators were seen engaging positively and supportively with the children throughout these activities.

Professional hours have not been completed for the eligible educators however administrator informs the inspector that these will be completed prior to the renewal expiry of October 31st, 2025

The ratio was respected during the renewal inspection.
