General Comments

A Monitoring Inspection was completed this morning. Children were observed inside. Infant Room - Infants were observed during lunch and nap time. During QAM's observation, two children were eating and three were napping. Music was playing during lunch, and the two children that were eating were observed smiling, laughing, and dancing in their chairs. Tots Room - Children were observed finishing up their lunch (macaroni) and preparing for nap time. Two's Room - Children were observed eating snack - crackers, jam, and cream cheese. Educators stated that the children are presently interested in building, play doh, magnetic tiles, and the outdoors. Positive child guidance techniques were observed - educator was observed offering children choices and assisting children in their decision making. Educators were also observed encouraging the children to use their words. Three's Room - Children were observed washing their hands before eating their lunch. Educators were observed sitting with the children during lunch. Well defined learning centers were observed, some of which included: Arts and crafts, building, cozy reading area, science, and dramatic play. Four/Five Room - Children were observed finishing up their lunches at arrival. After lunch, a group of children were observed practicing their names with markers and white boards. The classroom was decorated for Valentines Day. Several forms of documentation were observed throughout the entire facility. A conversation was had regarding dates and how going forward, dates are to be added to documentation.
