General Comments

A renewal inspection occurred today. Children were observed indoor and outdoor (opening outdoor in the morning). The educators were observed listening and responding to each child's initiatives, questions and insights using positive child guidance. The environments were co-created with children reflecting children's current interests and curiosities. The environments (the third teacher) were inviting and purposeful. Materials were open-ended to provide multiple choices, solutions and possibilities for exploration and investigation. All checks were complete. All staff files were observed and complete. Random review of children's files were observed and complete.
