General Comments Telephone Monitoring Inspection Quality Assurance Monitor discussed the following with the Administrator: Staff to child ratios maintained, no challenges presented due to COVID-19 requirements. All educators under the age of 19 are supervised by staff over 19 years of age. Purposely planned and documented programs are based on observations of children's interests. Pictures and awards obtained during Tae Kwon Do events are posted throughout the Centre. Children have time and space to express their creativity and interests. Children's creations are displayed within the classroom. A wide variety of materials are accessible to children. Currently some of the children are enjoying freeze dance, staff have created a song play list for the children. Discussed with Administrator staff documenting their planning and the different ways of doing that. Children are outdoors daily and are looking forward to the summer where they will be outdoors most of day. Children input is sought when planning activities. Various forms of literacy: include books, crossword puzzles, word search, physical literacy, arts &amp; crafts and writing materials, including book making. Children enjoy positive relationships with each other and with staff. Children are acknowledged by staff and their peers for their work in Tae Kwon Do, creating positive relationships between children and educators. Children's interests are acknowledged and supported i.e. when staff recognized that children needed a playlist for the freeze dancing – they worked with children to create playlists of the songs that children enjoy. Discussed COVID-19 groups logs, possibilities for maintaining logs.
