General Comments
- Visit completed at the facility in the afternoon for a monitoring inspection. - The staff-to-child ratio was respected during the visit. - The parent board at the entrance of the facility displays the following documents: the license, inspection reports, orders for compliance, daily routine, evacuation procedures, the name of the administrator, the name and telephone number of the QA Monitor and the inspector, information on life-threatening allergies, and, when applicable, a notice informing parents of the presence of a communicable disease. - Meals and snacks are provided by the parent or guardian. - Administrative records are maintained on-site. Monthly emergency evacuation and fire drills are conducted. - A daily incident log is maintained. Parents are informed of incidents and sign the log. - Personal belongings are labelled with each child's name, are easily accessible and stored separately for each child. - Observations: 2-year-old room: During the visit, the children were napping. 3-5-year-old room: During the visit, the children were napping. The two children who do not nap were playing quiet games and creating in their activity books. A discussion was held with the educators regarding documentation. The educators presented their learning stories to me. Learning stories, webbing, and portfolios are being used as forms of documentation in the facility.
