General Comments
When I arrived the two older groups were outside. The children were enjoying various activities with in their groups of friends. I went into the building and the two younger groups were in there own rooms. They were in the process of cleaning up their rooms and getting ready to wash hands and head outside for snack and free play. The children were all enjoying the day outside, there was a soccer game, games of catch, while others were relaxing on the grass. As I was writing a report I over heard an educator speaking to two children that had been arguing. She took each child aside and spoke to them in a kind gentle manner explaining it was not nice to yell at each other. There seemed to be plenty of materials for the children to use outside and the educators were engaged with the children. The children seem content and happy.
