General Comments
A Renewal Inspection was completed this afternoon. Children were observed waking up from their nap, during diaper changing procedures, and during snack. Children were also observed climbing on their new indoor climbing structure. Children were observed during outside play. While outside, children were observed exploring paints and searching for bugs. Positive child guidance practices were observed - operator using positive language, offering choices, using positive reinforcement, giving gentle reminders, and involving children by giving them responsibility and letting them help.
License is ready for renewal.
