General Comments
A renewal inspection occurred today. Within the learning environment there are natural, familiar, real-life materials that represent children's home environments. Areas were flexible to accommodate children's emerging interests. The operator was observed having positive conversations with the children, listening carefully and giving them time to express what they are feeling. Documentation demonstrated children's ongoing group project work and individual work in progress. All checks were complete. All files were observed and complete.
