General Comments

A Monitoring Inspection was conducted this morning. Children were observed inside during free play, snack, transitioning to outside, and during outside play.

Inside - Several well-defined learning / play areas were observed - dramatic play, building & transportation, gross motor, books, and arts & crafts. Several forms of documentation were observed - children's artwork, photos, and learning stories. Children were observed building towers, playing with trains, and mark making. Children were observed sitting at their table, during snack. Diaper changing and hand-washing procedures were observed and followed.

Several outside play areas were observed - turf area with a roller-coaster, a paved area with bikes and a basketball net, a sand / mud / water play area, and a natural stream.

Positive child guidance techniques were observed - educator offering choices, educator sitting with the children at their level, educator providing appropriate supervision, and educator conversing with the children.

Parent binder was observed, and all required documents were included.
