General Comments
-The ongoing treatment for the child in question is now complete. The facility is now aware they must document medication administration each time a medication is given, and that prescription medication must be in its original container. Parents must also complete necessary documentation prior to the medication being given. - All required documents are now into the employee file. - No ratio was taken; follow-up has been done by e-mail.
