General Comments
Visit to the facility to complete annual renewal inspection. Ratio was respected at time of visit. Upon my arrival, school-aged children were engaged in an outdoor group challenge. Upon returning indoors, they washed their hands and assisted with lunch preparation by setting the tables and selecting their preferred ingredients. Grilled cheese sandwiches were served for lunch. Preschool children participated actively in story time. They then washed their hands and enjoyed lunch. Following the meal, the children selected tabletop activities, allowing for a quiet period.
