General Comments A renewal inspection was conducted on the school age program. The children were observed during outside play the entire inspection. They were observed playing soccer, having snack and engaging with their peers. A variety of materials were set up inside prior to the children's arrival in the event that the children wanted to go inside at the end of the day. Children's learning is documented and displayed throughout the learning environment. The educators were observed having respectful and responsive conversations and interactions with the children and the children appeared happy and content with their educators and in the school-age program.
