| General Comments  |
| During my visit, the morning preschool was just finishing up and they were getting picked up by parents. The pick up protocol appeared to follow COVID guidelines and no parents had entered the building. I was logged in upon arrival. The preschool room was set up well with different stations and children's work was displayed on the walls. Some of the children were napping and the ones who did not nap played with quiet activities. The nap equipment was spaced out adequately. I observed cleaning and sanitizing by the educators and the center appeared to be clean and safe. |
