General Comments The children were observed to be familiar with the routine of handwashing and maintaining their bubble groupings. All children, upstairs and downstairs, were enjoying their time participating in activities of their choice within the interest centers. Cooperative conversations were heard and kind, respectful interactions were taking place between educators, the children and their peers. The children's learning environment was observed to be clean and well organized. Documented evidence of purposeful programming has begun with the beginning of the new school year. In addition to after school care, a morning preschool is taking place. The children from 3 bubble groups at Janie's Kid Zone are participating and maintaining their bubble groupings. A cleaning schedule is established to ensure COVID-19 cleaning and disinfecting protocols are occurring. Facility staff actively participated in the renewal inspection process by providing important information and feedback on various aspects of the program and COVID-19 related operations.
