General Comments The children arrived dressed for the weather for immediate outdoor play. The outdoor play area is snow covered and the children were having fun taking turns jumping in a slushy puddle! The children were observed to be familiar with the routine of the morning . They actively explored the interest centers within their learning environment and engaged in play with the props and materials that were accessible to them. The children were interacting with one another during cooperative play activities and the educators participated along with them. The children's art is displayed within the room and their portfolios illustrate further learning based on their interests.
