General Comments

A Monitoring Inspection occurred on March 13, 2025.

Children were observed during indoor free play. Educators noted that the children are currently very interested in a coffee bean sensory tray provocation, open-ended art experiences, exploring the properties of mud outside, and finding ways to express themselves through multiple modalities. Educators have also included their own interests in their documentation. Positive child guidance techniques were observed throughout the facility.

The daily incident log is maintained, and parents are advised of incidents. Incident report forms are completed in the event of reportable incidents. Outdoor play occurs for at least one hour in each four-hour block of time when the majority of children receiving services are in attendance, weather permitting. Monthly emergency evacuations are completed and posted. The daily routine is displayed as a visual schedule, and evacuation procedures are posted in a prominent location. Life-threatening allergies are also posted.

Ideas from the web and learning stories are reflected in the art area, library, kitchen, and dramatic play areas. Books have been selected to reflect the children's interests, and children's artwork is displayed at eye level with their name and date included. Well-defined learning and play areas were observed, and several pieces of children's artwork were displayed throughout the facility. Drinking water is provided throughout the day. Various forms of literacy are present in the indoor environment. Portfolios are being completed with the children, and multiple forms of documentation were observed throughout the facility.
