General Comments
Children engaged in play in the indoor and outdoor environments during monitoring inspection. Current projects and interests evident in the materials and documentation posted in all three learning environments. In room 4 the "Not A Box" project demonstrates children's creativity and imagination and what they can do with just a box. Children have created buildings, space rockets, robots, and cribs for their babies. Educators have documented children's words and ideas in order to expand and foster their creativity around the project. Children in room3 have been interested in farm animals and farms. Project web posted to show how this idea and interest can be expanded and new learning introduced. Children's words and ideas are documented demonstrating what they already know. Children in room 5 have begun a project on types of vehicles. Documentation posted to highlight types of vehicles and parts of vehicles in the learning environment supports children's interests and curiosity and provides new learning opportunities. In the outdoor environment educators were observed to engage in play along side children, getting down to their level, and supporting them in their play.
