General Comments
The children's learning environment is rich in props and materials that are accessible to the children. All children were observed to engage in play with one another throughout the interest centers. Kind and respectful interactions occurred between the children and the educator. A great deal of conversation was happening during play as well as during snack time. Documented evidence of the preschool children's interests and activities are posted and displayed neatly within the children's play space. Furthermore, the preschool children's portfolios are maintained current. Outdoor play area-: The bottom part of the back fence is in need of repair in the spring.
