General Comments

A renewal inspection occurred today, February 3, 2025.
The children were observed participating in outdoor activities during the inspection as well as indoor activities. The children were observed playing in the snow and playing ball hockey outside. In the inside environment handwashing and snack were observed.
Children were also observed creating/drawing art, card games, building with Lego, reading books, having a dance/sing party, and painting suncatchers.
Educators indicated that the children also have the opportunities to participate in Judo as well as Kid Sing with parental permission.
All staff files were reviewed and verified complete.
Educators were observed engaged with the children in conversation and learning. Positive interactions between the Educators and the children were also observed.
