Comments: The Quality Assurance Monitor observed three children sleeping on the floor during rest time. The Quality Assurance Monitor asked the educator whether cots were available for the children. The educator indicated that there were two cots in the other room. The administrator must ensure that when a child who does not usually nap chooses to rest, a mat or cot is provided.

General Comments The Quality Assurance Monitor is on site to conduct a monitoring inspection. During the monitoring inspection, children were observed outdoors as well as during transition periods, including handwashing, lunchtime (lunch boxes), and nap time. The ratio is respected during the visit.
