General Comments

Licensing Staff arrived at the Facility to perform a Monitoring Inspection. Upon arrival, the 3-year-old class was in the process of waking up from nap time while the 4-year-olds were outside playing.

Outside, the 4-year-old classes were seen playing with bubbles, a "police" wooden steering wheel and in a wooden house. The children had brought their lunch boxes and water bottles outside to enjoy an afternoon picnic. During the visit a bathroom break was taken. Ratio was maintained and any water bottles that needed to be refilled, were brought inside. One Educator brought chalk and a story book outside. The Educator read "Duck Soup" to children who were interested. The Educator stopped several times to engage with the children, asking questions "Can you show me how you slurp and sip?" "What does it taste like?".

In the 3's room they were preparing to go outside after their nap period. The children were excited to be bringing their lunchboxes out to have a picnic in the sun. A final headcount was observed as the group left the building to head to the playground.

All classrooms are clean, bright and organized. Bins of materials were labelled with words and pictures. Allergies were posted in each classroom and Emergency Medication was in a visible area, easily accessible and out of reach of children. Current learning stories were observed in all the classrooms in addition to art walls and family pictures. In the 4's class they have a large binder filled with pictures of the children for them to look through.
