General Comments Monitoring visit performed. Covid protocols being followed and staff are wearing their masks. When the province moves to Level 1, educators will still be required to wear masks and for children in common areas. Parents are also required to wear masks. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me. Upon arrival, 6 children were napping. 3 children were sitting playing quietly at the tables located next to the kitchen area with 2 staff providing assistance. Appropriate child guidance practices were observed. Lots of positive conversation and interaction observed between the children and staff. The educator were assisting when required. All children were observed getting up from nap and moving onto other activities. Administrative records were reviewed - staff attendance, children's attendance, fire drills, and outdoor checklist is being completed as per required. All in order. Vaccination status was reviewed indicating date of completion of second vaccine dosage. This facility is in a Continuation of licence waiting for a PH inspection.
