General Comments
Preschool children were in the outdoor play space when licensing staff arrived. The infant group were getting ready to go for a walk. There were a variety of activities and materials for the children to participate in the outdoor place such as the sandbox, climbing through the tires, drawing with chalk, and balancing on stumps and boards. The educators were friendly and patient with the children. Educators encourage the children to problem solve and think independently.
