General Comments When I arrived this morning, one child was having a morning nap and one child finished their snack and then had their nap. The operator works hard to ensure all the children's needs are being met by having a flexible routine. I observed a lot of nurturing child guidance and interactions. I also saw documentation on the walls and examples of the children's artwork. The educator set out various paints, sponges, stamps and brushes for the child to play with and took the time to follow the child's interests with counting the sponges, naming the colors and opening and closing the lids. Child records were very organized and easily verified. Holly has a very welcoming early learning and childcare home and the two children present were very happy and engaged.
