General Comments A renewal inspection was conducted today. Only preschool age children in attendance as the school-age children have moved to the school-age only license for this year. Discussed with Administrator, requirements regarding the Board of Directors. The children are able to free-flow in the preschool environment engaging in the various centres located throughout the room. Children's learning is documented and displayed in the learning environment. The outdoor play area was snow covered today, and will be assessed in the spring by the Quality Assurance Monitor. Positive interactions were observed between the educators and the children in their care.
