General Comments <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>-Afternoon visit to the afterschool program for an unexpected monitoring inspection</li> <li>-Ratio was respected during the visit</li> <li>-Each child has a locker for personal belongings, which is labeled with the name of the child and used only for the intended child.</li> <li>-Posted in a visible and prominent place in the facility are the following documents: The license, inspection report, orders for compliance, daily routine, evacuation procedures, name of administrator, name and telephone number of QA Monitor and inspector - Life threatening allergies and when it applies a notice to inform parents of the existence of a communicable disease.</li> <li>-Children's guidance is done in a respectful and positive way</li> <li>-Outdoor play area is maintained safe and free of hazards. It was advised to use only the blue swing set out of three, the one swing set has a very good amount of protective surfacing, while the other two have none.</li> <li>-Outdoor play area consists of more than one surface to permit different types of play</li> <li>-Outdoor material is varied and in sufficient quantity for all children present. Children have access to soccer goals, play structure, swings and material that is brought outside by educators.</li> <li>-A monthly review and maintenance plan is completed on all stationary equipment showing: the review and repair dates; the action required and taken; and the name of the staff completing the review</li> </ul> Observations: When arriving at the center children were into free play, some were making bracelets, while others were working on building with Legos, or magnetic. A group was exploring with a box full of Barbie's stuff and a group were playing cards. Once everybody was done eating snack, they went to the washroom and got ready to go play outside.
