General Comments

- Unexpected late afternoon visit to the establishment for a monitoring inspection
- Ratio was respected during the visit
- Medication used for anaphylactic shock (EPIPEN) is easy to access but stored safely, out of reach for children's.
- Prescribed medication is labeled with the doctor's name, instructions, and the time period for use
- Medication are out of reach of children and-or stored in a locked box.
- Review and discussion about the major incident report form. It was discussed with the director ....or the operator what incident is considered reportable
- Minor incident reports are maintained in the child's file
- Whitin the center the daily routine consists of a snack time when children are arriving from school, a free play period and/or a structured activity is proposed and outside play time at the end of the day
- During the visit, it was observed that all educators are engaged with children at their level providing support and having conversations.
- Each child has an easily accessible space to store their personal belongings, which is labeled with their name and used only for the intended child.

Observations: When arriving at the center children were finishing their snack, one of the groups was getting ready to do drawings on paper plates, some made freeze bee while others paper plans, another group was coloring printed pictures or worked on building houses out of Legos or Magnetix. By the end of the afternoon, everybody went outside.
