General Comments <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Visit done at the center for a follow-up. - Ratio was respected during the visit. - Diaper changing station meets licensing requirements, diaper changing procedure has been revisited with the educator and director. A changing table will be added into the baby room. - Orientation of children is done in a positive and respectful way. - Shade will be added into the playground in the coming weeks. - The early learning consultant team went on site for a visit from there an action plan was provided to the center to enhance the application of the curriculum into the classrooms. During the visit I have observed more documentation on walls, living space into classrooms are more inviting and opened material has been added. Educator and director are still in contact with the pedagogical team, on going support and guidance will be provided to all the staff.
