General Comments

Licensing Staff arrived at the facility to perform a Monitoring Inspection. Children were arriving for morning drop off. A small group of children were sitting at the tables having morning snack while others played quietly. As the children finished morning snack, hands were washed before joining their peers. Tables and floors were cleaned, and activities were set up.

The flow of the morning was smooth and calm. Verbal reminders were given before the children put toys away and gathered to read a story. In one classroom, the Educator read "I Color Myself Different" while the other class read "Alligator Baby". The Educator often stopped reading to engage and involve the children in the story, "Who knows what twins are?", "How many babies do you see on this page?". After the story a family craft was set up at the tables for the children.

The rooms were clean and organized. Bins and stations were labelled with pictures and words. The children had made a Valentine's Day craft which was displayed in the entrance. Family pictures and photos of the children playing with their peers were observed. The Educators were attentive and engaged with the children during today's visit. Only positive child guidance was observed. Staff files and Child Profiles were reviewed and contained all required documents.
