General Comments
A renewal inspection occurred today. Children were observed both indoors and outdoors. Environments were flexible comfortable and inviting. Invitations were set up for the children to explore between transitions. Educators were also observed singing songs with the children while waiting for lunch's to be prepped. Documentation was in each learning environment that was reflective in children's current interests and child led. Outdoor environment had props that included but not limited to " trucks, shovels, buckets etc." Personal belongings were displayed at children's level, labelled, organized and can be independently accessed. Diaper procedures were observed and properly done. Hand washing was observed entering the center and at snack/lunch time. All attendance records were completed. Parent handbook has been updated, and newest copy has been given to licensing. Staff files were verified and complete. A random review of children's files was also observed and complete. All fire drills were documented and complete.
