General Comments The Operator has the Covid-19 screening questions posted on the entrance door. It states that if you are having any symptoms you are not to enter the home. The children were about to have snack (bagels and watermelon) when licensing staff arrived on site. After snack the and operator read a couple of stories and then prepared to go outside for outdoor play time. The operator was very expressive and interactive while reading the stories to the children. The operator brought out bubbles filled with food colouring and paper for bubble painting. The children enjoyed creating their bubble paint paintings. Once the children were finished creating their paintings they explored the very inviting natural play space. Closer to lunch time, a couple of the children wanted to go inside to play with Lego and the operator encouraged the children to go inside and get the Lego so they could build outside. The children then went in the house and brought the Lego outside and began to build under the umbrella on the deck. While reviewing the operators file, the inspector noted that the declaration stating that the operator has read and understood the Early Childhood Services act and the Child Abuse Protocols for New Brunswick was last signed in 2015. When the inspector asked the operator if she has read the Early Childhood Services Act and the Child Abuse Protocols for New Brunswick? The operator told the inspector that she has read and understood both of these documents and signed the declaration while the inspector was still onsite.
