General Comments Upon Licensing staff arrival, there were no children present at the time of inspection as the home facility has relocated to this current address. The entry way was bright and inviting and the parent board is visible with required documentation posted. The children's cubbies are organized, and family photos are on the inside of the main door. The main play space is set up and materials such as wooden blocks, art supplies, dolls, a wooden play kitchen and baskets of open-ended material were at child level and accessible. Nap spaces were set up in two of the main level bedrooms with a playpen and a crib. Toxics are locked in the kitchen and bathroom with a magnet key and diaper changing procedures are posted. The outdoor space has material ready for the children to arrive. Play material such as a mud kitchen with accessories, a crawl through tunnel, a picnic table, cozy coupe cars and a slide are ready and set up. The garden is ready to be planted with the children and an outdoor boundary will be set up for woods play. Child files were verified, and fire drills are being completed and logged. Licensing recommends for renewal.
