General Comments
When I arrived the full time children were finishing their lunch and then they did a quiet activity of their choice. The educator indicated that they went outside this morning on the playground. They have specific times when they can use the school playground everyday. After the quiet activity they cleaned up and got ready for a nap. I noticed the room set up was changed and it appeared that more centers were made. It allowed the children to maintain some distance from one another while still allowing for individual or group play. Children's work is displayed in the classroom and in the hallway. Attendance is being kept up to date and fire drills are being conducted regularly. All required postings are up in the entranceway. The preschool classroom is set up well with various centers. There are a variety of accessible materials for the children. The classroom appears to be clean and tidy. I saw children's work posted on the walls, and there were also pictures of children and the activities they have been doing. There were no concerns on the day of the visit.
