General Comments Children had just finished having their teddy bear picnic upon arrival of licensing staff. Educator was able to show Quality Assurance Monitor photos of the children's picnic which she had taken to share with parents. Some children were seated at the table paint and adding tissue paper to their paintings. This was presented as an open ended art activity and documentation of learning was posted in the room which highlighted open ended art and linked it to the curriculum. Other children were playing with playdough and playdough materials. The indoor play area had many learning areas set up including a table with astro turf grass, farm animals, wooded materials and two books that supported this area about farm animals and building. All children remained engaged throughout the monitoring inspection and the educator was observed interacting kindly with all the children and helping support children with sharing materials. Positive behaviour guidance was observed at all times.
