General Comments

- Visit completed at the establishment in the morning for a monitoring inspection.
- During the visit, the ratio was respected.
- Posted in the entrance of the facility are the following documents: The licence, inspection report, daily routine, evacuation procedures, name of administrator, name and telephone number of QA Monitor and inspector - Life threatening allergies and when it applies a notice to inform parents of the existence of a communicable disease.
- Each napping child has a cot that is appropriate for their height. Infants under 15 months have a designated crib. There is a space of at least 46 cm between rest equipment, and all nap equipment is washable and non absorbent.
- The following administrative records are maintained on site: financial records; daily attendance of children and staff; menus and any substitutions; monthly emergency evacuation and fire drill records; and inspection and maintenance records for smoke alarms, smoke detectors, and fire extinguishers.
- Monthly emergency evacuation and fire drills are completed.
- Each child has an easily accessible space to store their personal belongings, which is labelled with their name and used only for the intended child.
- A daily incident log is maintained; parents are informed and sign the daily log. Incident reports are kept in the child's file.
- Observations:
- Infant room:
During the visit, snack time (food provided by the parents), handwashing, diaper changing, naptime, and free play were observed. During free play, the educators were actively engaged with the children. They sat on the floor with the children, participated in discussions, and supported their play. The children played with dinosaurs, looked at books, and listened to a story read by an educator.
- Two-year-old room:
During the visit, snack time, parent arrivals, and free play activities were observed. During free play, the educator sang songs with the children. The children played with musical instruments and explored insect-themed toys and materials.
- Three-year-old room:

General Comments

During the visit, the children ate their snacks and participated in free play activities. During free play, the children built structures with blocks and took part in a painting activity.

- 3-4-year-old room:

The children had their snack and participated in free play activities. They built structures with blocks, played in the sand, completed puzzles, and painted and decorated pumpkins.

Fire Drill:

During my visit, the daycare conducted a fire drill. All groups were evacuated from the facility in a timely manner. Educators brought their clipboards containing attendance sheets and conducted head counts to ensure all children were accounted for.

- Discussions with the educators and director regarding policy 902.
