General Comments

The inspector and the Quality Assurance Monitor arrived at the facility while the educator was having a discussion with the children regarding reminders of keeping the washroom clean and picking up their toys once the children want to play in another play center.

The inspector and the Quality Assurance Monitor is present during free indoor play and during snack time.

The inspector and the Quality Assurance Monitor verified these items:

- Ratio and maximum number of children
- Staff files
- Indoor play area
- Child guidance
- Daily activities
- Posted in a visible and prominent place in the facility)

During the visit, the child-to-staff ratio was respected.

All staff files were reviewed and verified. Each staff file contains a copy of their verifications and required documents. All staff files also include a copy of their training and qualifications.

Each classroom had cleaning supplies. Each classroom had a variety of materials in sufficient quantities for all children present.

Children did a salt painting activity yesterday and some children finished their art while other children were engaged in a sensory bin pretending to be fake snow made by the cotton inside of diapers.
