General Comments
Completed the renewal inspection today. All school age children were involved in purposeful play within their learning environment. The children were observed engaging in problem solving cooperative teamwork while building, participating in creative art activities, reading, and so on. Educators were available to the children at their level and interacting in a positive, respectful manner. Educators actively participated in the inspection process today by contributing recent and current interests of the children, including planned activities. Posted documentation and programming binders supports the children's learning of indoor and outdoor experiences. Lovely displays of the children's art, drawings, printing and photos. Educators reported on the cleaning process for toys, materials, equipment and high touch surfaces. They indicated a well-established routine, especially for the shared space in the preschool/school age room.
