General Comments

A monitoring inspection was conducted today on the two preschool rooms on the license. Five new and current staff files were reviewed and verified complete with all required documentation. Mandatory attendance records and incident logs were reviewed and observed complete. In one of the preschool rooms, the Inspector observed the children's learning was documented and displayed on the walls. Pictures of children engaged in sensory play (rainbow rice), exploring, and creating with glue, outside play (making "soup" in the mud and water), mark making/printing their names, discovering worms in the outside play area. During the inspection, the inspector observed the children engaged in inside activities such as: water table play, tuff tray with leaves sticks, pinecones, and a book and another tuff tray with sand, shoves, scoops, and buckets. Children were also observed creating roads and ramps with blocks and cars, painting and creating art pictures and exploring moon sand. The children were also observed engaged in singing songs with their educators during morning meeting and transitions. Educators were observed down at the level of the children, engaged with them in their learning and play. Positive child guidance techniques of redirection were also observed during the inspection.
