- Parents are required to notify the operator when their child is absence is due to illness or another reason.
- Children who become ill are supervised and separated from the other children, parents must pick up the child within the hour.
- No trampoline is being used at the center.
- There was no hot beverage in areas occupied by children.
- The first aid kit has all the required items and is accessible on the premises.
- Discussion with the operator in regards of designations, professional learning hours and parent committee.

Observations: When arriving at the center, the junior toddlers were having snacks and the babies were just finishing snacks they then got ready to go outside. Both 2-year-old group was outside, when coming in one group went into dizzy play and the other group were doing construction. The tree year-old group was just finishing snacks and getting ready to go outside. During the visit I could ear a lot of signing and rhymes. Webbing and documentation are into each classroom and hallways.
