General Comments

COVID-19

Before entering the facility inspector received a full screening. Mask were worn by operators and director during renewal inspection since physical distancing was not always possible. COVID documents and registers were available on site. Children were seen playing in their respective groupings at all time.

Ratios were respected during time of inspection. Operator is getting things ready for the school year. Inspector discussed morning school drop offs and afterschool pickups.

Positive interactions were observed during time of renewal inspection.
