General Comments
The Quality Assurance Monitor is on site to conduct the renewal inspection. The ratio was respected during the inspection. The QAM observed the nap blankets put away in small storage bins. Certain blankets were big and overflowing over the bin. Because of this, the blankets were touching each other. The QAM had a discussion with the educators to make sure the blankets are not touching each other. The QAM observed an expired EpiPen. The administrator informed the QAM that the child no longer needs the EpiPen. The parent is currently an educator at the center. The educator informed the QAM that the child doesn't need the EpiPen anymore. The QAM informed the administrator that this information should be updated by the parent in the child's profile. While observing the daily activities planning, the educators told the QAM that they threw out the planning for July and August 2024 as it was taking up too much space in their binders. The QAM reminded the educators to keep the last 12 months of daily activities planning for the renewal inspection. The administrator must ensure that all eligible staff member complete their 10h of professional development before the 31st of July. The QAM observed the children having their snack and playing in the indoor play area. The children were then observed doing tie-dye shirts, and they were actively involved in this activity. The children were also observed playing in the outdoor play area, then transitioning to eating their lunch. Shepherd's pie was served for lunch. Some of the children were napping, and the rest of the children were playing with toys on their cots. The QAM
