General Comments Educators were engaged with children at time of visit. They were seen speaking to children and seizing learning opportunities for teachable moments. The children's rooms are set up with learning centres that provide learning opportunities which are developmentally appropriate for each age group being served. This was not only evident in the indoor environment but also in the outdoor environment. The environment was calm in each room and children moved freely from activity to activity. Educators were attentive to the children's needs.
