General Comments During the monitoring inspection, children were observed during their time in the gym. Upon arrival, children were at the tables playing a drawing/guessing game with the educators. Each child had a whiteboard and marker. Mats were also set up on the floor with other activities- magnet tiles, interlocking blocks, and books. The younger children washed their hands and started their snack time before the older afterschoolers arrived. Snack was crackers, cheese strings, apples, wow butter, and green peppers. The program manager ensured the menu was accurate and wrote in the substitutions that were used. Once the older afterschoolers arrived and all children had snack, stations were set up on one half of the gym floor. Educators brought out a dollhouse with barbies, a puppet theatre and puppets, Lego, drawing and a small bowling set. 5 staff were present for 20 children. Two staff were the program manager and program lead. The three others were educators. Group B went outside at 3:45 for outdoor time. Group A went outside at 4:00. Child guidance was positive throughout the monitoring inspection and children were provided with time warnings for transitions. Positive words of encouragement and praise were heard. New staff files were checked, and all required information and documents were present.
