General Comments
Licensing staff arrived at the licensed facility at morning snack time.
After snack the child played with a sorting/number/counting game and then began to build and transport Lincoln logs from one part of the classroom to another.
All child files were complete with the required documentation. All staff files were complete with the required documentation and checks.
The classroom was very clean and inviting. Invitations of play were set up for the children to engage with.
Licensing staff only observed positive child guidance by the operator when engaging with the child.
Licensing staff recommends the facility for renewal of license.
