General Comments The afterschool children had just arrived and were having snack on the front step. After snack some the children did some gymnastics on the front lawn while other played basketball. The children decided to go to the back yard where they were observed playing "4 squares", making food in the mud kitchen, climbing on the climbing dome and swinging on the swings. The operator asked the children if they wanted to stay in the yard or go to the park. They decided to go to the park. While at the park they children played basketball, soccer and the swings. As it was getting close to pick up time the group returned to the home to wait for parents. While waiting they marked with chalk on the driveway. Everything seemed to run smoothly during the visit.
