General Comments

Licensing Staff arrived at the facility to conduct a Monitoring Inspection. Upon arrival, some children were still arriving while others were inside having morning snack. As there was no school for some children today, they were attending the program for a full day. Each child had their own cubby and labelled hook for personal belongings.

Once the children finished their snack, they lined up to transition to the gym, where they participated in a game of four square. The Educator divided the children into groups and was observed refereeing the game.

The Administrator explained that the groups typically rotate between the gym, the outdoor play area and a large room with various activities. Each Educator had a walkie-talkie to communicate with one another for bathroom breaks, children who needed to get their water bottle and before the groups rotated. After finishing their time in the gym, the children had the opportunity to use the washroom and change into their outdoor shoes before heading outside.

While outdoors, a large group of children played soccer, while others passed a football around or practised a dance routine. The Educator was heard providing reminders to the children as it approached time to clean up.

The group then transitioned back indoors, where the children participated in a variety of activities, including playing Uno, sorting hockey cards and engaging in tabletop activities. Proper handwashing was observed before the children sat down for lunch.

Staff and child profiles were reviewed during today's visit and were found to contain all required documentation.
