General Comments A monitoring inspection took place today in the school-age program. The children were observed in both the indoor and outdoor environments, including during transitions between the two. Additionally, the children were observed eating their snack. Today's snack consisted of crackers, cheese, vegetables, and hummus. Outdoors, the children were engaged in a variety of activities that included playing hockey, baseball, dancing, using 3D printed animal figures, climbing on the snow hill and using bowls and sticks. Educators indicated that the children are currently interested in a variety of gross motor activities, particularly sports and tag, as well as engaging in drama play, superheroes, Lego, wall ball in the gym, and music. Several forms of documentation were visible throughout both rooms, including photographs, children's artwork, learning stories and project binders. The rooms were well organized and inviting, offering a varied supply of appropriate materials, books, and toys. Educators demonstrated positive interactions by using encouraging language and gentle reminders. They asked open-ended questions, listened actively, and extended children's ideas through conversations. A clearly visible and prominent area was designated for posting the facility license, current monitoring reports, and any orders for compliance. Additional documents observed included incident logs, daily attendance records, three staff files, ten randomly selected child files, and the monthly emergency evacuation and fire drill records.
