General Comments

At the time of the monitoring inspection, the child-to-educator ratio is in compliance with regulatory requirements.

Information regarding children's allergies, the facility licence, inspection reports, the name of the administrator, and the contact information for the Inspector and the Quality Assurance Monitor is posted on the information board.

The files of newly hired staff members contain criminal record checks, vulnerable sector checks, valid first aid certificates, valid cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) certificates, and job descriptions outlining their duties and responsibilities.

Diaper-changing procedures are posted. Educators ensure continuous supervision of children during diaper-changing procedures.

Daily activities are planned and documented.

Children are appropriately supervised during mealtime.

During the monitoring inspection, the Quality Assurance Monitor observes outdoor free play, the transition indoors, including children learning to remove their winter clothing, handwashing routines, the reading of the book Twinkle Twinkle Little Star, indoor free play, and lunch.
