Comments: Deficiency is now compliant

General Comments
The room has been redone; shelving has been moved to allow for a new layout. Many new materials were added. Bins are labelled. It's evident with the change that staff have put a lot of time and effort into revamping the room. New materials and loose parts have been added, soft lighting, more literacy learning opportunities, new books and a new water/sensory table. More items are also on order. I recommend for renewal.
