General Comments

- Visit done at the facility in the afternoon for a monitoring inspection
- The ratio was respected during the visit.
- It is the week of March break. Many activities are planned for the week with the child's interest kept in mind.
- Positive child guidance was witnessed during the visit.
- Personal belongings are easily accessible and labelled with the child's name. Each child has its own individual space to put their belongings.
- Indoor play area has a sufficient amount of material and equipment for all children present. Material is maintained clean and in good repair.
- The center offers a variety of activities to support the interest of the children. Learning stories and pictures are seen in the classroom and hallway.
- Observations: Some children were creating art; others were playing with Lego and on the keyboard. Upon my departure the children were participating in a group activity.
- Discussion with the educator concerning cleaning supplies.
